

VICTORIA LATIN AMERICA DOCTORAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Victoria Latin America Doctoral Scholarship is available to four high performing students from Latin America.

Research Scholarships

Victorian universities are internationally recognised for their quality and collaborative research links with overseas universities and industry. With technically advanced research infrastructure and high international ranking Victorian universities are competitive leaders in many fields.

Four scholarships are available for PhD candidates commencing research at a Victorian university in 2016. The successful applicants will receive a scholarship of AUD$90,000 to cover living expenses over three years and a full fee waiver. The scholarships are funded by the State Government of Victoria in partnership with Victoria's universities.

Preference will be given to research in one of Victoria and Latin America's shared challenges, such as food security, water management, health, education and urban and regional development.

To be eligible for a Victoria Latin America Doctoral Scholarship, you must:

- be a citizen of a Latin American country (which includes all of South America, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean)
- have been accepted into a doctoral program at a participating Victorian university
- be intending to complete the majority of your doctoral work in Victoria
- not hold a qualification regarded to be equivalent to an Australian research doctorate
- be willing to be an ambassador for the Victoria Latin America Doctoral Scholarships.

How to Apply

To be considered, apply for your doctoral program directly to the university of your choice:
